

TARIFF PICTURES.
Chicago's factory pictures were earning an average of $436 a year in 1880. Their earnings had grown to $900 in 1890. The number of hands employed in the meantime grew from 79,414 to 209,108.

It is to be hoped that Carl Schurz will get an office, for if he doesn't he will flop back into the Republican party.

This is a Republican year. We've pretty nearly got the President whom we didn't elect, and things are coming our way in good shape generally.

Representative Kilgore of Texas, when asked if he was going to ask for a Federal appointment, said: "Not much; I am coming back to Congress to raise Cain."

Chicago Dispatch: If, as now seems likely, President Cleveland adheres to Civil Service principles, he will prove to be a most offensive partisan to a majority of his party.

Jefferson declared the Presidency to be "a splendid misery," and the Democrats are likely to impress Cleveland with the bitter truth of the observation during his second term.

Nobody will be disposed to envy Secretary Gresham his feelings when he comes to counteract legislation for Democratic successors to the sons of Lincoln and Grant.

Senator Allison presents figures showing that the appropriations of the last Congress exceeded those of its Republican predecessor by $28,094,000, and he is a man whose figures are always accurate.

There is evident reason to believe that Cleveland fully appreciates the fact that he must maintain pleasant relations with the Republicans if he expects to prevent the Democrats from wrecking his Administration.

It is related of General Grant that while engaged in an animated argument with Mrs. John A. Logan on one occasion, he opened his cigar case, offered her a cigar and took one himself. He lit his own and proceeded with the discussion. Mrs. Logan quietly accepted one and now values it highly as a souvenir.

When Texas reduces her Democratic pluralities 100,000 or 150,000 she will be recognized by Democratic Presidents when offices are given out. The plan is easy to adopt. She will feel better when they do it than she doesn't get as many offices as she wants. She expected the Attorney Generalship, but Massachusetts got it.

Our population of foreign birth is actually and proportionately much smaller than one imagines. By the census of 1890 there were 9,249,547 persons of foreign birth in the United States; that is, the percentage of such persons to the total population was 14.77 per cent.

As electric railroad from Sharpsburg to Carlisle is almost an assured fact, the projectors have been guaranteed the line will not cost more than $1500 per mile, including rolling stock.

HENDERSON is shaken by a sensation in the shape of a $5,000 damage suit against Morgan Swope, a prominent citizen, and the additional charge that he is the father of a illegitimate child of Mamie Olan, a girl he had seduced.

There are only a trifle less than a hundred thousand armed Kentuckians in Washington—more than in any other place. Henry T. Stanton, who was a Land Agent under Mr. Cleveland's former Administration, now wants to be a Deputy Auditor, and Captain Frank Froese of Louisville thinks he will be satisfied with the Chiefship of a Division in the Treasury.

The Riley Dramatic Company will play a return engagement at the Opera-house all next week. The company has been somewhat strengthened since when here last fall, and with a new repertoire of plays should be greeted by even better houses than before. The prices for this engagement will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

ROBERT L. BALDWIN, Superintendent of the Lexington Turnpike, met with a painful accident yesterday morning. He was measuring rock and while carrying the tape line was at the same time leading his horse. Stopping for a moment, the horse stepped upon his foot. One of the "clerk" of the horse's shoe cut into Mr. Baldwin's foot, producing a very painful wound, which will cause him to go lame for some weeks to follow.

OUR AGENTS.

The following are the Agents for THE PUBLIC LEDGER in their respective localities.

SPRINGDALE.

G. W. Hook is in Cincinnati this week.

Miss Flora Tully of Cottageville visited relatives here this week.

Miss Susan Jenkins is suffering with a felon on one of her fingers.

Mrs. Louis Jenkins and Miss Maggie Dean visited relatives in Lewis county the first of the week.

At the people were gathered at Bethany Monday evening a runaway team, with the front wheels of a wagon attached, came flying down the pike, scattering the crowd right and left, and struck a spring wagon, turning it upside down. The horses continued their mad career across Owl Hollow bridge, when one of them fell, enabling some young men near to secure them. No serious damage.

The stereopticon entertainment given by Professor C. C. Cline two nights this week was the most magnificent one modest community ever had the privilege of witnessing. For the small sum of 15 cents one could view pictures and statues that to see in reality would cost many hundreds of dollars. The realistic representations of works of the world's great masters are really something to see.

The temperance lecture was very impressive and instructive. The hymn "Able With Me" was sung by twenty-five persons, turning it was very touching. The memory of Brother Cline's matchless sermons on Lord's day and night in connection with the entertainment was fresh in the minds of all lovers of the good and beautiful.

SAIDIS.

B. T. Hill has moved into Saidis.

Pattie Watson's wife was buried at Shannon the 15th inst.
